

YOUTH WORLD SHOW QUALIFYING RULES

The purpose of this team is to represent the North Carolina Quarter Horse Association at the AQHYA World Championship. You should feel great pride and a sense of accomplishment if selected to participate on this team. The youth of NCQHYA have a great tradition of representing both NCQHA at a high level.

Qualifying Dates:

State Qualifying - June 1, 2022, through May 31, 2023

National Dates Designated by AQHYA - May 1, 2022, to April 30, 2023

By June 1, 2023, members are required to furnish, to the Youth Advisor, a copy of the most current AQHA and/or State point printouts showing the total number of points accumulated during the qualifying period. From this list, team members are selected in the following manner:

- A. The member is to select his/her ten (10) best NCQHA approved shows from the qualifying period. The Youth Show is mandatory.
- B. The six (6) team members, per class, will be selected from those having the ten (10) best NCQHA approved shows. This applies to those State qualifying. National Qualifiers are not counted in this number.
- C. Alternates will be selected from youth members with the next ten (10) best NCQHA approved shows.
- D. In the event of a tie in any category, the tie will be broken in the following manner:
  1. The horse with the highest number of NCQHA points in that class.
  2. The horse placing higher above the largest number of horses at the NCQHA approved shows.
- E. Members desiring to show in classes where no points have been acquired (i.e., Yearling Mares or Geldings) will qualify based on the following:
  1. Horses shown in NCQHA youth classes at NCQHA approved shows.
  2. In the event of a tie, the horse with the most NCQHA points will be selected.
- F. In the event no horse qualifies for a particular class, a youth member who meets team requirements may be approved for that class.
- G. Once the Youth Advisor verifies eligibility you will be provided with a link that will allow you to enter classes for the Youth World Show.
- H. Each Youth World team member will have one stall and one entry paid for by NCQHYA. Any additional horse(s) requiring stalls, or entries will be the financial responsibility of the youth team member.
